Performance & Governance in Strategy & Innovation

From Vision to Measurable Impact

ETH Zurich, Villa Hatt, 12-18h

In today's fast-moving landscape, strategy and innovation leaders face a common challenge: How do you ensure that transformation efforts lead to measurable business impact?

This exclusive event brings together senior executives to explore how effective performance management and governance can turn ambitious strategies into tangible results. Learn how leading organizations define success, track progress, and adapt in real-time to maximize their strategic and innovation investments.

Expect an afternoon of executive keynotes, real-world case studies, and interactive breakouts, followed by a lake-view apéro riche, where you'll exchange insights with peers tackling the same challenges.
